Communism has reached its position by deception. Our purpose is to educate people to what Communism really is, written in plain words for plain people. Non-partisan, non-sectarian, and no axes to grind. We have reliable up-to-date sources of information.

Stalin Instructs U. S. Agents

Spanish Communists Cheer as Madrid Church, Which They Set on Fire, Goes Up In Flames

General Franco finally drove the Communists out of Spain after a bloody revolution and the death of a million and a half people. Stalin is now working through his Fifth Column in America to help open Spain to the Red Army so it can rape, rob and destroy religion as it has done in thirteen European countries.

TELLS COMMUNISTS HERE TO UNDERMINE GOVERNMENT BY LEADING WORKING CLASS TOWARD REVOLUTION AND BLOODSHED

by Attorney Jeremiah Stokes
(For Freedom's Sake, pages 40 and 41)

All of this intricate organizational work and discipline of the Party members, and this directive to "lead the masses forward successfully" means what, to you and me in America? Let Joseph Stalin, himself, explain the facts.

These are his own words delivered to his lieutenants of the United States assembled at Moscow for special direction:

"I think comrades, that the American Communist Party is one of those few Communist Parties in the world upon which history has laid tasks of a decisive character from the point of view of the world revolutionary movement. — I think the moment is not far off when a revolutionary crisis will develop in America, that will be the beginning of the end of world capitalism as a whole. It is essential that the American Communist Party should be capable of meeting that historical moment fully prepared and of assuming the leadership of the impending class struggle in America. Every effort and every means must be employed in preparing for that, Comrades. For that end we must work for the complete liquidation of factionalism and deviations in the Party. For that end we must work for the

ONE HUNDRED CATHOLIC WOMEN STRIPPED IN PRESENCE OF REDS

A recently smuggled dispatch out of Yugoslavia, where Stalin's Tito is Dictator, reveals that more than 100 Nuns were subjected to the most humiliating and barbaric treatment.

It was originally decreed that they should be liquidated by a firing squad. Then, through pressure from Rome, it was ordered that they be released and sent out of the country. Before being permitted to board transport planes to take them out, the Nuns were compelled to strip in the presence of the Red Army of Yugoslavia and submit to the most horrible type of ridicule and abuse.

The Preservation of the Constitution

Address delivered by George E. Stringfellow, Chairman of the Public Affairs Committee of Kiwanis International for the United States, before the Rotary Club of Denver, Colorado, September 12, 1946

A year ago we Americans permitted ourselves to relax, thankful that World War II was over, proud of our part in its successful prosecution, and confident that our form of government — and all that it means to us — had been preserved against a vicious and determined onslaught. We of course knew that there would be certain inevitable problems of peace-making to solve, certain domestic war strains to relieve; but few of us then foresaw even in small measure the threats which today hang over our way of life, and over the Constitution which was adopted for the precise purpose of insuring that way.

Those threats are posed within our own land, by Communists; by their dupes, whom we may charitably call our "political morons"; and by that more intelligent, but thoroughly unscrupulous, group among us who, disguising themselves under the viciously false labels of "liberal Democrats", "liberal Republicans", "progressives", and "non-partisan labor leaders" and other misnomers, actually draw on Communistic dogma to promote the sale of their spurious political wares. These internal threats are vastly augmented by the menace of Communist Russia.

Serious as is the impending internal chaos resulting from years of Constitutional erosion, nevertheless at present another and probably even more immediate aspect of danger is the threat posed by Communist Russia — of whom a prominent churchman has advisedly said: "Communism denies the right, dignity, and liberty of man. Communism permits no individual liberty. Communism holds that religion, the belief in God, is an opiate of the people".

Seldom a day passes that the atheistic Stalin, through his controlled press, radio and puppet government, does not attack our form of government, our private citizens, our public officials, and impugn the motives of our press and radio. Meanwhile Molotov, Stalin's "man Friday", wears down, confuses and tries to gobble up and enslave the people of the world through his maneuvers at the conference which was intended to write a world peace — and his counterpart, Gromyko, plays a similar role at the United Nations' Conference. As late as February of this year, in a war-like speech to his people, Stalin announced a fifteen-year plan to strengthen his fighting forces. Why does he need an enlarged fighting force, when the peoples of the world are prepared neither mentally nor physically for another war; when, aside from the British Commonwealth of Nations and the United States, most of them are actually prostrate?

Stalin wrote a book. Stalin called his book, "Problems of Lenin", and in that book Stalin disclosed the purpose for which he now wants this fighting force. He said: "It is inconceivable that the Soviet Republic could continue to exist — side by side with industrial states — ultimately one or the other must conquer." Are we by any chance within Stalin's definition of an industrial state?

During and since World War II we have provided Russia with war and rehabilitation material worth upwards of twelve billions of dollars — equal to the total combined wealth of the States of Colorado, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, South Dakota, Utah and Wyoming. Stalin not only has used much of this material for political purposes, but also, since and even while accepting our help, has carried on a vicious Hitler-like propaganda against us — designed, of course, to cause his people and his satellite countries to fear, distrust and even hate us. The Yugoslav attack on our planes — approved by Stalin's mouthpiece, Pravda — is typical of a pattern of aggressive action maintained by the Russians throughout the past two years. All of this is in large measure the result of the policies of the administration to appease Russia, and thus to obtain the votes of the real enemies of our Constitution, masquerading as liberals, and their moronic fellow-travelers. Each concession has only whetted Stalin's appetite for greater concessions. And even today there are actually those in our country who would further appease Russia by making available to her our industrial know-how and the secret of the atomic bomb.

Is there anyone in this room who feels that Russia would be less difficult to get along with if she, and not we, had the secret of the bomb? Have those appeasers forgotten that Stalin and Hitler became partners in 1939, at which time Stalin said there was no reason why Communism and Nazism — which was actually the most highly developed form of Fascism — could not live together in the same world? This partnership, by assuring Hitler of a one-front war, made World War II inevitable.

The appeasers offer not the slightest assurance that Stalin would not use our industrial know-how and the secret of the atomic bomb against us if we made them available. On this matter of getting along with Stalin, President Roosevelt, crippled and in ill health, made three trips, hat in hand, to see and appease Stalin; President Truman went to see and appease Stalin; Winston Churchill made many trips to see and appease Stalin — and finally very vocally attested to their futility. So far from being appeased, Stalin, by every move he makes, continues to confirm what he said in his book: that Soviet Russia and industrial states cannot "continue to exist" in the same world, and that "ultimately one or the other must conquer." If Stalin is the victor, leaders of every nation on the face of the earth, including our own, will take their orders, not from the people who elected them to public office, but from Stalin's Kremlin — and that only begins to suggest the probable concrete consequences to you and me as individuals.

What should our government do about this threat to our existence as a free people? If it abandons wishful thinking and appeasement; if it establishes and adheres to an intelligent foreign policy; if it maintains an army, navy and air force commensurate with its responsibilities as a world power; if it presents to Russia the absolute certainty that it is so determined on ultimate peace and on freedom of the individual that it will wage another all-out war for them — then, and only then, will it have done its duty in preserving the Constitution against its foreign enemies. At the same time it will have rendered that new war far less probable.

Our government, as a result of the vitality that still remains in our Constitution, is still intended to be only the voice of our people. The Constitution intended that our government's acts should represent the collective judgment of our people. In practice, its acts tend to represent the collective judgment of those particular people who manage to make their judgments heard.

If the preservation of all that we have is important to you, then make your judgments heard, and heard widely. Make them heard by direct communication to those who now purport to represent you. Make them heard by your vote in the elections of your representatives to come. Still more important, make them heard in your community now, and again and again prior to those elections, so that your FELLOW CITIZENS, in crystallizing THEIR views, may have the benefit of yours.

Our fundamental liberties are at stake; there is actually being posed — both from within and from without — the serious question of whether we will be able to remain a free people.

Exert every ounce of energy you can muster, avail yourselves of every iota of influence you have over the thinking in your community, in shouldering the formidable and challenging task of preserving our Constitution which will keep us free men and women.

re-establishment of unity in the Party of America. For that end we must work in order to forge real revolutionary Cadres and a real revolutionary leadership of the proletariat, capable of leading the many millions of the American working class toward the revolutionary class struggle. For that end all personal factors and factional considerations must be laid aside and the revolutionary education of the working class of America be placed above all." (Joseph Stalin to his lieutenants in America and to the Communist Party as a whole. Milestones in the History of C.P.U.S.A. p 89; U.S. Gov. Report No. 2290, p.8; Com'st Int'l, March 20, 1930; Dies Com. Report, Jan. 3, 1939, p. 16).

Did you get the pivotal points of Stalin's decree against you and against your Government? Let me enumerate them for emphasis and clearness:

1. The Communist Party of America is selected by Stalin as a key party in the Communists "world revolutionary movement."

2. Stalin predicts that "a revolutionary crisis" will soon develop in the United States. (Recently he said America will be Sovietized within five years.)

3. When that crisis develops — and mind you that the conspiratory job of fermenting that crisis is the assigned task of the Communists, themselves — "that crisis will be the beginning of the end of world capitalism," or will be the end of all free governments and of all opposition to Communism!

4. Stalin demands that the Communist Party here prepare itself to assume "the leadership of the class struggle," which is the blood revolution in America.

5. And in that preparation, "every effort and every means must be employed."

6. That to be prepared to take that leadership in the revolution here in America, Stalin demanded that his lieutenants "forge real revolutionary Cadres" to lead the "many millions of the American working class towards the revolutionary class struggle."

Do you understand that English language, ladies and gentlemen?

Think! Think!! Think!!! I urge upon you, think of the deliberate, cold-blooded threat and plot laid by Stalin against you and me and all of us, and against our Government! And still, in spite of all the unequivocal proof of Stalin's conspiracy against America, his clever Communist Party propaganda fools millions and makes Judas goats of thousands who prate about Stalin's friendship, and lead millions into the hellish business of betraying this people into his ruthless power!

Have you got the picture painted by Joseph Stalin to his stooges in America? And do you realize that his injunctions were explicit in directing these agents to make all preparation to destroy this nation by the fires of revolution in order that Communists might loot America and rob her and rape her? Do you get these tragic facts? And do you get the significant point that the directives in Stalin's speech and the pledges in his vow to Lenin and the Communists' oath, and the Karl Marx principle of fighting for the daily needs of the workers, all mesh together in a perfect working unit to take over America?

Wake up, Americans! How can we be so dumb, so gullible and so willing to be hooked and robbed and raped by international Communism, this world monster of the anti-Christ? What are we, a race of mice or men, guinea pigs or God's children of intelligence?

RELIGION IS OPIUM OF PEOPLE, SAYS RED LABOR LEADER

The following editorial is reprinted from "Facts and Fun in 441", issued by Local 441, United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, C.I.O.

Some of our readers wonder why we concentrate on Labor at various times when we attack the Reds. It is in these Red dominated unions that Communism has gained most of its ground and it is here that the seeds of the coming American Revolution are planted. We are proud to say that there are unions that will not tolerate this type of treachery.

Religion is Moving Toward a New Reformation Today

Religion is moving toward a new Reformation today — it is futile to try to stop it. This new Reformation will be a communal one, cutting across all the present lines of communion. Its coming will be hastened by basically non-religious forces. Organized religion today has aligned itself with the Western world, and the Western world is on its way out. It has embalmed God in symbols and entombed Him in cathedrals. It is the bulwark of the past, holding men back when it should be a dynamic force, blasting away at wrong and leading into right.

A spiritual and intellectual revolution will come out of this generation as the result of what we've had to go through. There will be a revolt against a religion which can be found in a foxhole, and not in a cathedral; and against a science which makes robot bombs. Science and religion must both busy themselves to save what is left of themselves. The new religion to come will be a Post-Protestantism.

What are the things against which it will rebel? It will rebel against any form of religion which puts form above dynamics, and letter above spirit; which splits personality into body and soul; which preaches against moral sin only; which divorces emotion from the moral decisions of the will.

The real challenge of the world today is that of facing squarely and honestly the problem of the equality of man. There can be no true democracy without this equality, and it must be a complete equality. Such equality is not monopolized by democracy or Christianity, for it existed before either, and can exist without either. Political, social, educational equality, equality of opportunity and equality before the law are all but pieces of this complete equality. In the lack of racial equality which exists in the world today lie the seeds of World War III.

Racial inequality is a world-wide problem. The present war has let loose forces beyond our control. People have learned about freedom and they won't go back to the stagnant bastard air of second-class citizenship. Religion is now allied with the forces of the status quo, and it is against all these forces that the coming revolution will lash out.

Man is essentially religious, so we shall always have religion. But it will have to be a dynamic religion. It will have to shape itself to meet the needs of man.

BY KARL MARK AND FREDRICK ENGELS

"Communism abolishes eternal truths, it abolishes all religion, and all morality, instead of constituting them as a new basis; it therefore, acts in contradiction to all past historical experience." (Manifesto of the Communist Party by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels, p.29, Ex.22).

Bit of This & That

By David Goldstein, LL.D.

"DON'T FENCE ME IN": While the Soviet Union is extending its territory and increasing the number of Communist-controlled countries, by boring from within and battering from without, the Soviet apologists keep on endeavoring to allay our fear, by declaring that "All Russia wants is security; Russia doesn't want war!" All she wants is to be allowed to continue her zigzag propaganda and diplomatic maneuvering, so as to keep on extending her territory and influence without war. In the meantime, she keeps the largest army in the world ready for action, if only as a threat. All she wants is "security," which means, in the Stalinist sense, that Russia wants to extend her fence beyond the borders of other countries, while she cries out, "Don't fence me in." This she is likely to continue to do until the U.N. demands, as it should, a status quo ante bellum, which would drive the Soviet Union back behind her 1939 fence, where she rightly belongs. Here is a list of countries and territories that Stalin and his Politico Bureau have fenced in thus far for Soviet "security":

	Square Miles	Population
Lithuania	24,058	3,029,000
Latvia	20,058	1,950,000
Estonia	18,353	1,120,000
Eastern Poland	68,290	10,150,000
Bessarabia & Bukovina	19,360	3,748,000
Moldavia	13,124	2,200,000
Carpatho-Ukraine	4,922	800,000
East Prussia	3,500	400,000
Karelo-Finland	16,175	470,000
Petsamo, Finland	4,087	4,000
Tannu Tuva, Cen'l Asia	64,000	65,000
Southern Sakhalin	14,075	415,000
Kurile Islands	3,949	4,500
Total	273,947	24,355,500

In addition to the hundreds of miles of territory and millions of population listed above that have been fenced in by the War-created Frankenstein, it dominates the Balkan States; has established naval bases on the Porkkala Peninsula in Finland and at Port Arthur; compelled the Chinese Government to turn over half ownership and operation of the Manchurian railways; is demanding part of Turkey, the whole of Tripolitania, and Trieste (through its puppet Yugoslavia); has taken 51% of Iran's oil interest; is making headway in its endeavor to control France, Belgium, Italy, Manchuria, Northern Iran, and other countries through its Communist fifth columnists; while rallying the nations against Franco, so that through the Socialists, followed by the Communists, Spain will become part of the "security" zone of the Kremlin. Godless Russia, rich with the spoils she fenced in, will yet meet with destruction, as did the people told of by Osee (8:14).

WOMEN RAVISHED BY FORMER ALLIES

We conclude in this issue an article written by Austin J. App, Ph.D. Dr. App, until drafted into the army in 1942, was head of the English Department, University of Scranton, Scranton, Pa., and is now professor of English in a Texas college.

The Russians Violate Women With Our Connivance

When with our help the Russians took Berlin they perpetrated the worst orgy of rape in the history of Christian Europe. Our armies carefully waited outside so not to interrupt this orgy of rape and loot! And this abuse of German women became the order of the day. It went on right under President Truman's eyes at the Potsdam conference where he gleefully decided that "The German people are beginning to atone for the crimes of the gangsters whom they placed in power and wholeheartedly approved and obediently followed" (Dept. of State Bulletin, Aug. 12, 1945, p. 208).

What gangsters? Have the abettors of the most beastly and large-scale raping in history a right to call anyone else gangsters? The Swiss paper Weltwoche (Jan. 11, 1946) relates how when recently three theatergoers, an American, a German, and a Russian, called on the star during intermission, she said, "Excuse me for looking so bad, but I was raped twice coming here and so suffered a nervous collapse." And the Swiss reporter goes on to say that it is so customary in Berlin for women to be raped, coming and going, that one hardly notices it any more! And President Truman sees all that, drinks champagne with Stalin, and agrees to rob and expel twelve million German men, women, and children from their homes and homelands as a punishment for so-called German crimes! Where is American chivalry gone to? What if our women were so treated? "When you hear the tales of the brutalizing of women from the eastern front," writes Novelist Dos Passos, "you think with a shudder of those you love and cherish at home" (Life, op. cit.). If a conqueror violated our women, then we would begin to understand what real atrocities are. Perhaps it will come someday. If it does, we will have deserved it, we who screamed when the Germans executed the British-sent murderers of a governor and their concealers at Lidice, and don't raise a whimper when the Russians violate a million women and hundreds of nuns!

The Austrians, Too, Were Liberated — and Ravished

"We Allies are no monsters," said Churchill, and we come to liberate you, especially you Austrians! Well, a British chaplain reports that in one Austrian town he knew of 3000 women under treatment for rape ("Listening In" op. cit.). In Vienna, supplementing Cardinal Griffin's charge that 100,000 women had been raped many times, John Dos Passos, three months in Europe as a correspondent for Life, reports,

"The Viennese tell you of the savagery of the Russian armies. They came like the ancient Mogol hordes out of the steppes, with the flimsiest supply. The people in the working-class districts had felt that when the Russians came that they at least would be spared. But not at all. In the working-class districts the troops were allowed to rape and murder and loot at will. When the victims complained, the Russians answered, 'You are too well off to be workers; you are bourgeoisie' (op. cit., p. 24).

And we have asked these people to help us prosecute seven million Germans for alleged war crimes!

In Hungary Few Women from 10 to 70 Escape

In Hungary something dramatic enough finally happened to get some little space in the daily press. A Hungarian bishop was shot! That was something. For years the Nazis had been cursed as savage anti-Christians, but in all that time they had not killed one single bishop, had in fact not even put one single native bishop in jail! Here now the holy crusaders for Christianity had shot a bishop. Even then the story came out only as a sort of compliment to the Russians headlined, "Reds Punish Men Who Killed Bishop." Recently in Rome Cardinal Mindszenty explained that "Bishop William Apor of Győr, and 53 priests were killed by the Russians — the Bishop was killed when he tried to protect a group of women and children who had taken refuge in his palace."

Last summer the KAP News Services carried a report by the Swiss Legation, therefore as reliable a source as is possible, in which we read,

"Besides looting, it is especially the raping of women which has caused the most suffering to the Hungarian population. These violations were so general (from the age of 10 up to 70 years) that there are practically few women in Hungary who could escape this fate. Acts of incredible brutality have been registered and many women prefer to commit suicide in order to escape monstrosities. Even now, when order is more or less re-established, Russian soldiers will watch houses where women live and they will return there at night to take them away"

Why Don't We Protest This Harsh-Peace Debauchery of Women?

The apostolic "Four Freedom" interventionists have brought Christian women the foulest mass tragedy in history. The Pope, the German bishops, two or three bishops here and in Britain, the Quakers, a few clergymen, scholars and socialists protest in agony — but the self-righteous re-educators of Germany leeringly cry for more harsh peace, and work unctiously to bring Spain's Christian women to the same debauchery!

If we let them, they will finally bring our own to it!

In next week's issue of Think Weekly a letter which was written by Leo F. Brady, C.I.O. - P.A.C. of Elizabeth, N. J., will be published and answered. Mr. Brady wrote the letter in connection with an article previously published in Think Weekly.

By WILLIAM C. BULLITT
Former Ambassador to Russia.

In his book, "The Great Globe Itself", William C. Bullitt, former Ambassador to Russia, makes the following statement, which in a few sentences illustrates what would happen even in our own United States should the Communist Party gain control:

"The Soviet Union — is unrestrained by any consideration of humanity or morality. In areas which it controls completely it either murders immediately or deports to certain death at slave labor all its political opponents of all classes, including farmers and factory workers and all highly educated persons whom it cannot terrorize into becoming its agents. By continuing day after day and month after month to murder and deport all who criticize, it finally reduces its victims to a terrorized mass of individuals whom it then compels to vote for a Soviet candidate under penalty of losing their bread cards, which are nothing less than permits to live."

By LENIN

"Religion must be abolished. The best country is a godless country. If religion will pass out quietly our attitude will be one of benevolent tolerance. But if it resists, we will hasten its exit by violence proportionate to its resistance." (Lenin - Ibid.)

"We must hate — hatred is the basis of Communism. Children must be taught to hate their parents if they are not Communists. If they are, then the children need not respect them; need no longer worry about them." (Lenin - Ibid.)
